AACF Welcomes John Chalifoux to Board of Trustees

Sacramento, Calif. – September 17, 2024 – The Automotive Aftermarket Charitable Foundation (AACF), a 501(c)(3) organization dedicated to supporting individuals and families within the automotive aftermarket industry during their most challenging times, is pleased to announce the election of John Chalifoux, Chief Operating Officer of MEMA, to its Board of Trustees.

Chalifoux brings a wealth of experience and leadership to the AACF, further strengthening the Foundation's commitment to assisting those in need within the industry. As the COO of MEMA - The Vehicle Suppliers Association and the Chief Operating Officer of MEMA Aftermarket Suppliers, Chalifoux has a deep understanding of the industry's unique challenges and is well-positioned to contribute meaningfully to the Foundation's mission.

"It is an honor to join the Board of Trustees for this remarkable organization and to serve alongside so many distinguished leaders in our industry. The Foundation has an exceptional history of supporting families and individuals in need, and I look forward to contributing based on my skills and personal experience," said Chalifoux.

AACF President, Jon Owens, expressed enthusiasm for Chalifoux's appointment, stating, "We are thrilled to welcome John Chalifoux to our Board of Trustees. His extensive industry expertise and dedication to helping others align perfectly with our mission. We are confident that his contributions will be invaluable as we continue to expand our reach and impact within the automotive aftermarket community."

About the Automotive Aftermarket Charitable Foundation (AACF)

The Automotive Aftermarket Charitable Foundation (AACF) has been helping aftermarket families turn tragedy into triumph since 1959. Like the industry, AACF is driven by passion and devoted to family. It's tough to ask for help, but when someone in the aftermarket family faces profound circumstances, AACF is there when it seems like there's nowhere else to turn. As a nonprofit, this is accomplished through the support of generous donors, awareness partners and dedicated volunteers. To learn more, visit at www.AftermarketCharity.org.
