FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Larry Magee Selected as AACF Board of Trustees Vice President

Sacramento, Calif. – January 22, 2020 – The Automotive Aftermarket Charitable Foundation (AACF) announced the selection of Larry Magee as Vice President of the Board of Trustees. Magee has been involved with the Foundation for over 25 years, and currently serves on the Foundation’s Executive Committee, Recipient Review Committee, Strategic Planning Committee, and Golf Committee.

“Larry has 4 decades of senior executive experience in the Automotive Aftermarket,” said Joel Ayres, Executive Director of AACF. “He is very passionate about helping our industry families in need through the Foundation. AACF is fortunate that Larry will be stepping into this leadership position.”

During his career in the aftermarket Magee held CEO/President positions with several companies including Bridgestone/Firestone, Heartland Automotive, and Magnolia Enterprise Group.

“I am both humbled and honored to continue my direct involvement with the Foundation in this new role,” Magee said. “I look forward to continuing to give back to the fine men and women of the Automotive Aftermarket who have fallen on tough circumstances and have nowhere else to turn. I am passionate about paying it forward to the industry that has been so good to me and my family.”

About the Automotive Aftermarket Charitable Foundation (AACF)

The Automotive Aftermarket Charitable Foundation (AACF) has been helping aftermarket families turn tragedy into triumph since 1959. Like the industry, AACF is driven by passion and devoted to family. It's tough to ask for help, but when someone in the aftermarket family faces profound circumstances, AACF is there when it seems like there's nowhere else to turn. As a nonprofit, this is accomplished through the support of generous donors, awareness partners and dedicated volunteers. To learn more, visit at www.AftermarketCharity.org.
